Keeping records is a great way to hold on to your memories about each incredible year you have in 4-H. In a couple of years, you can look back on these journals and remember what fun you had.

Record keeping is also a great way to develop your skills in organizing your time, communicating, recording events and things you did, and setting goals. Keeping records also teaches you about deadlines and how to keep up with money.

Remember, you're doing this for yourself. What do you want to remember about your year in 4-H? This information will give you a chance to look back on your year and help you decide what you want to do differently next year. This is called evaluation and is a skill that you will need to know about when you are an adult.

Remember, these are your records, so make them fun, make them creative, and make them memorable. Design your own way to keep these records; use a computer, a journal notebook or ledger pages. But begin by using these forms as the building blocks to make record keeping a tool for your success.

Project and Financial Journals The cash you receive from the sale of services and/or products from your project is called income. The items you pay for to support your projects are called expenses. Record your income and expenses in this chart. Add pages as needed or you may want to make your own chart on a computer.

Date	Own chart on a computer. Description of income or expense Catering snacks for Civic Club	Income	Expense $85.00	Profit/Loss
Example: 3/23/08	Catering snacks for Civic Club	$105.00	$85.00	+$20.00

Project and Financial Journals

Some projects, such as clothing, food, shotgun shells, can be more cost effective when you purchase the materials and make the product rather than when you buy the finished product. This chart can help you track that information.

Raw Materials	Cost	Finished Product	Retail Cost	Cost Difference
Example: Lumber & Nails	$30.00	Dog House	$75.00	$45.00

It is important to keep inventory information (inventory means "all the stuff you have") because you may need to refer to it over several years. If you bought a piece of equipment for your project area, you may need to record the warranty information. You could also record information about animal purchases.

Date	Description	Identification Information	Comments
Example: 9/23/08	Siamese Cross Kitten	Doesn't have any	Bought him in Cloverville, his name is Charles
Example: 10/15/08	Ipod	#221144	Purchased for Walk-Across-Texas

Animal Related Projects You need to keep up with how much you feed your animal. Write down how much and how often you feed and be sure to include what kind of feed you're giving your animal. To have more room, you will probably need to make your own chart on the computer or some tablet paper.

Month	Pounds/Mixed Feed	Other Feed Info.	Comments
Example: September	10 pounds	5 rawhide bones	21% protein puppy food
Example: October	6 ounces		Dehydrated fish food for goldfish

Example: Enter Iguana in Exotic Pet Competition at Mall	$5.00

Market Animal Growth Record

If you're enrolled in a Market Animal Project, you'll need to fill out a growth chart for market projects. It is important to keep up with how much your market animal is gaining because daily weight gain is a sign of a healthy animal. If your animal is not gaining weight, it could be sick. It is also important to keep up with your animal's rate of gain so you will know how much it will weigh at the end of your project. If you plan to show your animal at a stock show, the show rules may limit the amount that your animal can weigh. Keeping up with your animal's weight will give you time to adjust its feed so it will not be too heavy or too light.

Name of Animal	Birth Date	Date Project Started	Starting Weight	Date Project Ended	Ending Weight	Total Weight Gain	Total Days Fed	Average Daily Gain
Example: Market Goat – Hercules	5/1/08	8/15/08	40 lbs.	3/15/09	125	85	212	.40
To figure the total weight gain, su * To figure the total days					te the project st	arted to the dat	te the project	t ended.

* To figure the average daily gain, divide the total weight gain by the number of days on feed.

Example: Market Hog – Wilbur	11/15/08	95

Sales Record for Market and Breeding Animals Did you sell your animal at the end of the project, or did you keep it? Did you sell any of your animal's babies? This information should be recorded, too.

Animals sold	Number sold	Date	Place sold	Sale weight	Selling price	Total sales
Example: Gerbils	3	9/15/08	Pet Store		$3.00 each	$9.00
